

Euromoney Private Banking Awards 2026: HSBC Life

Speaker 1: Daniel Shane,
Global Head of Private Banking, Euromoney

[Text on screen]
Daniel Shane, Global Head of Private Banking Euromoney

[Speaker 1] The Euromoney Private Banking Awards recognise HSBC Life as the world's best insurance provider for wealth management.

[Speaker 1] This recognises its role in reshaping how insurance supports the world's most sophisticated, wealthy clients.

[Speaker 1] HSBC Life has built a specialist high and ultra-high net worth insurance franchise.

[Speaker 1] Its offering sits at the centre, sits at the centre, sits at the centre of the private bank wealth planning.

[Speaker 1] This is not a mass market insurer operating at the margins, but a dedicated platform with global relevance.

[Speaker 1] Anchored in Hong Kong and Singapore, the firm now supports clients from more than 50 countries, and has a distribution network of more than 110 wealth management partners across major onshore and offshore hubs

[Speaker 1] Innovation defines its leadership Solutions such as the underwriting passport, which allows clients to reuse medical underwriting across multiple regions, and integrated premium financing through HSBC's banking network, enables families to execute multijurisdictional strategies seamlessly.

[Speaker 1] For its global reach, technical excellence, and innovation in crossborder insurance planning, HSBC Life is Euromoney's world's best insurance provider for wealth management.